Hello and welcome to Julatten Birdlovers Cottage.

We are your hosts Doug and Di and we welcome you as our only guests...

Our cosy self-contained cottage, surrounded by tropical rainforest and cool mountain air, will ensure your stay is relaxing and enjoyable. As there is no mobile coverage in our area, your time here will be uninterrupted and stress free.

We look forward to welcoming you and will do our best to assist you during your stay.

Our cottage provides you with the following:

- Self-contained kitchenette
- Coffee, tea, sugar and milk
- A selection of tropical fruits and fresh flowers

- Complimentary chocolates and port
- Reverse cycle air-conditioning
- Ceiling fan
- Queen size bed with quilt, blankets and linen supplied
- Futon (double) for extra person/couple

Julatten Birdlovers Cottage is located at 1744 Rex Highway, Julatten, between Mossman and Mt Molloy, in the hinterland west of the popular tourist location of Port Douglas.

At an elevation of approximately 400 metres, the area enjoys a mild winter climate and escapes the summer heat and humidity experienced on the coast.

Cape Tribulation wilderness area, the Atherton Tablelands, Mossman Gorge and Cooktown are all within a couple of hours drive of our cottage. Day trips to the reef depart from Port Douglas daily.
