- Discover the amazing wildflower diversity, particularly in spring.
- Experience the peace & serenity of real wilderness.
- Great fishing.
- Cycle to town or the beach.
- Visit the tree-top walk in Denmark's Valley of the Giants.
- Explore a multitude of craft galleries.
- Just soak up some of the most spectacular coastal & forest scenery found anywhere in the world.

Some of WA's best wineries are here on our doorstep:- Howard Park, West Cape Howe, Matilda's Meadow and Karriview Wines are just to name a few. Did you know the Great Southern Region actually produces more fine wine than the Margaret River Region!

DENMARK WATERFRONT ACCOMMODATION & WILSON'S RESTAURANT

South Coast of Western Australia
 Rise with the golden sun dancing on the water. Enjoy spectacular forest and coastal walks, pristine secluded beaches, superb wineries and galleries and Denmark's world famous Valley of the Giants.

We are situated in beautiful Denmark, one of the most picturesque towns in Australia, with spectacular scenery, enchanting tall Karri forests, snowy white beaches, crystal clear ocean waters, tumbling granite boulders and majestic limestone headlands; meandering perennial streams and protected fish-rich inlets skirted with an artist's paradise of paper bark trees, rushes, rocks and bays. It has a wealth of wildflowers, fauna and bird life. And above it all, the glorious sparkling night sky.

While you are here, enjoy a meal at Wilson's Restaurant, open seven nights a week.

- Spend a day in Albany (only 35 minutes away). Walk the Bibbulmun Track.
- Climb the Devils Slide or Bluff Knoll. Relax & enjoy excellent food in our restaurants & cafes.

The Hotel Kurrajong is a superbly restored Heritage Listed building, reflecting its' elegant history and position as a Canberra Treasure.

Nestled in the quiet leafy streets of Barton, surrounding the heart of Australia's seat of Government, the Hotel Kurrajong offers the most modern facilities as would be expected from Canberra's Premier Boutique Hotel.

Positioned adjacent to The Parliamentary Triangle, the Award Winning Hotel Kurrajong is close to the Business, Political, Cultural and Tourism heart of Canberra.

Each of the Kurrajong's 26 superbly appointed rooms feature King size beds, mini bar, tea and coffee making facilities, in-room safe, free in-house movies, plus a host of extras unique to the Kurrajong.

Beautifully appointed and comfortable rooms in a quiet and relaxed environment, make the Hotel Kurrajong the ideal place to stay.

The Hotel Kurrajong is one of Canberra's historical treasures. Completed in 1926 it stands as a prime example of architectural trends of the early Commonwealth period.

Originally used as a hotel for Government employees, it is now also the home of the Australian International Hotel School.

In keeping with the Boutique style of the Hotel, the Boardrooms and Meeting Rooms are specifically designed to cater for private meetings, small conferences and special private dining occasions.

The professional staff are only too happy to discuss individual requirements to ensure that every function is enjoyable, professional and most importantly, successful.
