shopping village, pub/resort, newsagent, chemist, butcher, supermarket, movie hire, gift shop and clothing boutiques and takeaway food outlets.

Your bookings can be arranged for you upon your arrival.

"Simply The Best" is how one guest described their stay with us so we would like you to come and experience a short holiday or weekend away to see for yourself and enjoy the many pleasures Mission Beach has to offer.

Full breakfast is included in the rate.

The Tropical Escape bed and breakfast accommodation house in Mission Beach has been designed for both privacy and entertainment in mind. Large open plan living and entertainment areas will make you feel like you are in a resort . . . but the friendly hospitality is most certainly B&B.

Bluff Lodge Bed & Breakfast

Bluff Lodge opens the door to the heart and soul of a rich experience at Bellerive on Hobart's eastern shore.

Keryn has worked in the tourism industry for almost 20 years and has travelled widely, so she knows only too well that it's the unexpected extras that really make a holiday. She has a personal commitment to good service and to ensuring that visitors to Tasmania are well informed so that they get the holiday that meets their expectations and needs.

Experience the liberation of a village lifestyle only minutes from the city buzz. It's not just a place to stay but a journey into a world of wonder.

Feel the depth of character in the heritage-listed home lovingly renovated by its owners.

Tasmania's international cricket ground is a few minutes walk in one direction while the waterfront Bellerive Village is a short stroll the other way. Meander the cliff top along the Bluff for amazing views of Hobart across the Derwent River, and enjoy views of majestic Mount Wellington from local beaches.

A ferry ride from the nearby terminal to Saturday's Salamanca Market;

A chat with local yachties or a meal at Bellerive Yacht Club while you check out the local vessels moored at Kangaroo Bay Marina;

Shopping at the nearby Eastlands Shopping Centre or retail therapy in the city or the many art and craft galleries at Salamanca Place;

A trip to the Coal River Valley wine district to meet the people behind the scenes at boutique wineries and at Meadowbank Estate, where wine and art make a cosy marriage; or

A journey into the strength of the human spirit on the convict trail to Port Arthur Historic Site, enjoying the stunning coastal formations of the Tasman National Park along the way

Dinner can be enjoyed at several restaurants located in the Village.

And that's just for starters. Your hosts, Keryn and Chris Goodman, have almost 20 years of knowledge on Tasmania's tourism industry and can help with more information on attractions or itinerary planning.

Catersfield House

Welcome to Catersfield House, a boutique Hunter Valley accommodation and wedding venue. Positioned amongst 7 acres of magnificent gardens and with views over the vineyards to the Brokenback Range, Catersfield House has one of the most enviable locations in the Hunter Valley.

This elegant and luxurious Hunter Valley retreat is designed to create a warm and welcoming ambience, and gives a feeling of total relaxation. Guests enjoy a hot country breakfast each morning in the sunny Dining Room, and groups can prebook lunch or dinner in our Cafe Monteverdi.

Catersfield House is ideal for Weddings, Parties, Special Events and Executive Conferences. We have a glowing wood fire and a baby Grand Piano in the Guests Lounge, salt-water swimming pool and a Petanque (Boules) Terrain. Catersfield also provides Gift Certificates.

We also have one of our rooms, the Terrace Room, as pet friendly. We accept dogs under 15 kilos.

As Catersfield House is centrally situated in Pokolbin, guests have easy access to wine and cheese tasting, winery tours, horse riding, bicycle hire, hot air ballooning, golf, horse and carriage rides, galleries and antique shops and fine dining.

We look forward to welcoming you at Catersfield House.
